INTERNATIONAL SPEAKER
DR TONY LLOYD
CHILD AND ADOLESCENT
PSYCHOTHERAPIST AND CEO OF ADHD FOUNDATION IN THE UK

Dr Tony Lloyd is the CEO of the ADHD Foundation UK Neurodiversity Charity - the largest user led ADHD and Neurodiversity Charity in Europe. Dr Lloyd is the co-author of six national reports and several expert consensus statements, research papers and patient information booklets.

These include 'A lifetime Lost or a Life time Saved and Bridging the Gap published in 2017 and he contributed to the report on Social and Economic Impact of ADHD published in 2018 and more recently led and commissioned the UK National Expert Consensus Statement authored by Dr Susan Young. Dr Lloyd brings 25+ years as a mental health practitioner and consultant advisor and we are delighted to have him speak to our community.

Tony argues that the very prevalence of neurodiversity is such that 1 in 5 of humankind can not be errors of genetics or 'disordered' - but rather, are a reflection, of the natural diversity of human intelligence and creativity.
